- 2-06-02 Debtor in judgment. Creditor: Washington State Dept. of Employment Security.
- 5-07-02 Court declaration of support delinquency.
- 10-21-10 Debtor in judgment. Creditor: State of Washington.
- 8-17-11 Conviction for felony theft. Pled guilty. At this time Osborne was a resident of Tent City 4 in Bellevue.
- 12-22-12 Burglarizes a Bothell home. All rooms ransacked and cigarette butts left. Value of stolen property reported by homeowner : $3,961.00.
- 12-31-12 Osborne's associate Deborah Colley is arrested and gives detectives a statement on residential burglaries that may have involved Brandie Osborne, including the 12-2212 burglary at the home in Bothell.
- 4-02-13 Bothell police detective O'Bryant speaks with Osborne on the phone. She agrees to call back with a meeting time so they can discuss the burglaries but never does.
- 9-18-13 King County Sheriff's warrant issued for Osborne in relation to the felony burglary of the Bothell home.
- 9-27-13 Snohomish warrant issued for "modification or violation of court order." This is related to the 2011 Snohomish felony conviction for Theft 2.
- 10-02-13 King County Warrant issued for failure to appear for arraignment on 2012 Bothell burglary.
- 3-18-14 Arrested in Sammamish on two felony warrants when King County sheriffs observe her near midnight outside a closed business. Osborne tells arresting officers that she had recently been a resident of Tent City 4 in Sammamish but had been banned from the camp for seven days.

- 5-15-14 King County Warrant issued for failure to appear for arraignment on the Bothell home burglary.
- May 2014 Moves with Tent City 4 to Bellevue, holding the position of “bookkeeper.” According to former campers, the bookkeeper is responsible for keeping information used to run warrant checks on incoming campers. This means that at the time Osborne was supposed to be turning away applicants who had outstanding warrants, she herself had one and should have been evicted from the camp.
- 5-30-14 Arrested shortly before midnight when Bellevue police officer Tarantino observes her and an associate engaged in suspicious behavior behind a closed business near the tent camp. Osborne gives false names to Officer Tarantino and lies about her ID, but after running a series of checks on different names, Tarantino confirms two warrants out on her and arrests her.
- 6-19-14 Released from King County Jail on recognizance with conditions.
- 7-07-14 King County issues another warrant, presumably for violation of BCCAP conditions.
- 7-25-14 Booked into King County Jail by Bellevue Police
- 8-8-14 Osborne pleads guilty to the 2012 Bothell burglary.
